

PURCHASING CONDITIONS OF MONTAIR PROCESS TECHNOLOGY B.V., WITH REGISTERED OFFICES IN KRONENBERG, LISTED IN THE COMMERCIAL REGISTER UNDER NUMBER 14105551

Article 1 Definitions

In these Purchasing Conditions, the terms listed below shall be understood to have the following meanings:

- a. Montair Process Technology B.V.: the user of these Purchasing Conditions and the counterparty of the supplier, hereinafter referred to as: "MPT".
- b. Supplier: the counterparty of MPT.
- c. Agreement: the written version of the arrangements between MPT and the Supplier in relation to purchasing agreements and/or contracting agreements, assignment agreements and/or combinations of these, in addition to any amendments thereof or additions thereto and any legal actions carried out in performance of the Agreement.
- d. Parties: MPT and the Supplier.
- e. Direct Damage: material damage to items designed, sold, supplied, processed, let, maintained, assembled, disassembled, transported, installed, repaired or restored by the Supplier for, to or on behalf of MPT, including software (including the accompanying documentation), components and/or accessories.
- f. Indirect Damage: all losses or damage not included in the definition of direct damage, such as consequential losses, losses suffered, increased production costs, loss of profits, physical injury, harm caused to animals, intangible losses ("compensation for pain and suffering"), lost savings, environmental damage, reduced goodwill, losses caused by business stagnation, losses resulting from damages claims brought against the supplier by third parties, interest and costs for the prevention, limitation or establishment of damage and/or any costs incurred in order to obtain an out-of-court settlement.

Article 2 Applicability

- 2.1. These Purchasing Conditions shall apply to all requests, offers and all agreements relating to the purchase and supply of items by MPT and/or to the performance of work and/or the performance of services by the supplier on behalf of MPT.
- 2.2. In the event that when making an offer and/or concluding the agreement, the Supplier applies its own general terms and conditions, MPT hereby expressly excludes the applicability of such terms and conditions, except in the event and in so far as MPT expressly acknowledges the applicability of those general terms and conditions in writing.
- 2.3. These Purchasing Conditions may only be rejected and any agreements concluded may only be amended in the event that MPT agrees to the same in writing.
- 2.4. In the event that these Purchasing Conditions in any way contradict the provisions of specific undertakings that have been agreed, the terms of those specific undertakings agreed shall prevail over the terms of these Purchasing Conditions.
- 2.5. In the event that one or more stipulations that form part of these Purchasing Conditions are found to be invalid or rendered null and void, the legal effect of the remaining stipulations shall remain unaffected.

Article 3 Offers by the Supplier and contents of the Agreement

- 3.1. Unless expressly agreed otherwise in writing, offers made by the Supplier shall remain valid for two months, commencing from the date on which the offer is received by MPT.
- 3.2. An agreement between MPT and the supplier shall not come into being until such time as the content of the agreement is confirmed by MPT in writing.
- 3.3. In the event that and in so far as the confirmation by MPT referred to in paragraph two deviates from that which had been offered by the Supplier, the Supplier must make any objections in that regard known to MPT in writing within eight days of the date on which it receives the confirmation from MPT. If the Supplier fails to do this, the confirmation by MPT shall be deemed to constitute full evidence of that which had been agreed between the parties.

- 3.4. MPT shall be entitled at all times to amend the scope and/or capacity of the items to be supplied and/or the services to be performed, in consultation with the Supplier. Any changes shall be agreed in writing. In the event that in the Supplier's opinion, a change will have an effect upon the fixed price that was agreed and/or the time of delivery, the Supplier shall be obliged, before carrying out the change, to inform MPT of this in writing, within eight days of receiving notice of the change(s) desired by MPT.

Article 4 Delivery period, delivery and transfer of risk and ownership

- 4.1. The agreed delivery period(s) is/are of essential significance to MPT and unless agreed otherwise in writing, must be regarded as a final deadline. The agreed delivery period shall commence on the day on which the Supplier receives the confirmation of the agreement from MPT.
- 4.2. In the event that the delivery period(s) is/are exceeded, the Supplier shall be in default by operation of law, without any notice of default being required. The Supplier shall then be liable to MPT in respect of any direct or indirect damage or losses incurred.
- 4.3. The risk in relation to the items to be supplied shall only be transferred to MPT once the items have been received by MPT in its warehouse or at the location to which they were to be supplied on behalf of MPT. The transportation risk, together with all associated expenses, shall be borne exclusively by the Supplier.
- 4.4. Ownership of the items to be supplied shall pass to MPT once the items have been delivered in accordance with the stipulations in 4.3.
- 4.5. In the event that the items to be supplied are rejected by MPT, the risk and ownership of the items shall revert back to the Supplier, commencing from the date of dispatch.

Article 5 Prices

- 5.1. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the agreed prices shall be carriage paid to MPT's warehouse and shall include the costs of transportation, insurance, import duties and packaging, but shall exclude turnover tax.
- 5.2. The agreed prices shall be fixed and once the agreement has been concluded, may only be amended by means of a more detailed written agreement.
- 5.3. Price increases as a result of additional supplies or additional work performed may only be charged onwards to MPT in the event that MPT has accepted such price increases in writing.
- 5.4. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the agreed prices shall be denominated in euros; no exchange rate differences may be charged onwards.

Article 6 Guarantee

- 6.1. The Supplier guarantees:
 - that the items to be supplied are suitable for the purpose for which they are intended
 - that the items to be supplied will be complete and ready for use and will be supplied with all associated parts, accessories, tools, spare parts, software and associated documentation, user instructions and handbooks
 - that the items correspond entirely with the contents of the agreement (including all specifications, drawings, calculations, constructions and/or other documents provided by the Supplier in order for the agreement to be concluded)
 - that the items, unless otherwise agreed in writing, will, as a minimum, comply with the statutory requirements under the law of the Netherlands and with government regulations with regard to quality, the environment, health and safety
 - that the items to be supplied will be of good quality and will not contain any design, manufacturing and/or material faults.
- 6.2. In the event that MPT establishes that the items supplied do not fulfil the stipulations in section 6.1 (either in part or in full), the Supplier shall be deemed, following receipt of the written notification of the above, to be in default by operation of law, without any notice of default being required.

6.3. Having received the first written notification from MPT, the Supplier shall be obliged to rectify, without delay and at no cost, all faults and defects that occur within 12 months of commissioning or no later than 18 months after the date of supply.

Article 7 Breach and liability

7.1. In the event of any breach attributable to the Supplier, the Supplier shall be deemed to be in default by operation of law after receiving written confirmation of the breach, without any notice of default being required.

7.2. Notwithstanding the right to compensation for losses or damage and notwithstanding any other rights arising from the Agreement or allowed by law, the Supplier shall be obliged, without any judicial intervention, to pay MPT an immediate penalty of 1% per day, commencing from the date on which default commences, up to a maximum of 10% of the amount to be paid by MPT to the Supplier.

7.3. In the event of any breach attributable to the Supplier, the Supplier shall be liable towards MP for all direct and indirect losses or damage suffered by or to be suffered by MPT.

7.4. In the event that the Supplier takes the view that the breaches cannot be attributed to it ("force majeure"), the Supplier shall be obliged to provide evidence that confirms its opinion. Nevertheless, MPT shall be entitled to terminate the Agreement in such situations.

7.5. The Supplier shall be obliged to indemnify MPT in respect of all claims by third parties for the payment of direct or indirect losses or damage resulting from, or related to, the culpable breach on the part of the Supplier.

7.6. In the event of a culpable breach of contract by MPT towards the Supplier, the maximum liability of MPT for direct or indirect losses or damage incurred by the Supplier shall be expressly restricted, in application of Article 1(e) and 1(f) as appropriate, to the price agreed with the Supplier, unless the case involves damage or losses resulting from an intentional act or gross negligence of the Board or of managerial employees of MPT or involves liability arising from stipulations under mandatory law.

7.7. In the event of a breach, whether or not it is attributable to the Supplier, or in the event of the insolvency of or the suspension of payments by the Supplier, the admission of the Supplier to a statutory debt remediation scheme, the placing of the Supplier under an official receiver, the liquidation of the Supplier or the takeover of the Supplier's company by third parties, MPT shall at all times be entitled to suspend the obligations laid down in the Agreement or to terminate the Agreement without any judicial intervention and without any notice of default being required, at its discretion, without the Supplier being able to initiate any claim for compensation in such a case.

Article 8 Payment

8.1. Payment of the Supplier's invoice shall be effected within 45 days of the invoice being received by MPT. Once the aforementioned payment deadline has expired, MPT shall not be in default towards the Supplier. The Supplier must send a written notice to MPT and allow MPT a reasonable period within which to effect payment.

8.2. Invoices that contain insufficient detail to enable them to be processed correctly (such as those that do not state the order number, item number, product specifications or the company's number in the Commercial Register) shall be returned to the Supplier for completion and will not be due for payment until such time as all requirements have been met. The same applies to invoices that do not fulfil the requirements laid down in the Dutch Turnover Tax Act 1968.

8.3. MPT shall at no time be obliged to effect any payments in advance.

8.4. MPT shall be entitled to offset all claims it may have against the Supplier that can be valued in monetary terms against the amount stated on the Supplier's invoice.

8.5. MPT shall be entitled to suspend payment of the Supplier's invoice, in the event that it establishes that the Supplier has culpably failed to fulfil the terms of the Agreement.

8.6. The Supplier may never regard payments made to it by MPT as constituting the relinquishment, by MPT, of any of its rights.

8.7. In the event that and in so far as MPT commits a culpable breach towards the Supplier of its obligation to effect payment, the Supplier may only assert a claim against MPT for the reimbursement of interest at the statutory interest rate for consumers, by virtue of Article 6:119 of the Dutch Civil Code. The applicability of Article 6:119a of the Dutch Civil Code is hereby excluded, in so far as this is permitted under the terms of the law.

Article 9 Conversion

In the event that a stipulation that forms part of these Purchasing Conditions is, or is rendered, null and void, it shall be replaced (in so far as possible by operation of law) with a stipulation that corresponds as closely as possible to the purpose of the stipulation that is, or is rendered, null and void. The Parties shall owe a duty to one another, if required, to enter into reasonable consultations with one another regarding the wording of that new stipulation. The validity of the remaining stipulations contained within the general terms and conditions shall remain unaffected, unless prevented by the rules applicable under mandatory law.

Article 10 Industrial and intellectual property rights

10.1. The Supplier guarantees that the items to be supplied to MPT (including software and the associated documentation) do not infringe the industrial or intellectual property rights of third parties and shall indemnify MPT in respect of all claims by third parties in relation thereto (including all costs, losses and damage, and interest).

10.2. Without the prior written permission of MPT, the Supplier shall be prohibited from making use of the trading name, brand, logo or products of MPT within its commercial relationships with third parties or for the purpose of advertising or testimonials.

Article 11 Drawings, other resources and confidentiality

All of the drawings, models, materials, tools, technical data, software (and accompanying documentation) made available by MPT to the Supplier shall be used exclusively by the latter for the performance of the Agreement; the Supplier shall also keep them in good condition and they shall at all times remain the property of MPT. Immediately following the expiry of the Agreement, the Supplier shall return those items to MPT at the Supplier's own expense. Without the prior written permission of MPT, the Supplier shall be prohibited from reproducing (or from arranging the reproduction of) the aforementioned items or of other details relating to the Agreement, from allowing them to be viewed by third parties, or from providing a transcript thereof and/or permitting their use in any other manner by a third party.

Article 12 Limitation

All claims of the Supplier shall lapse no later than one year after the date on which they arise.

Article 13 Prohibition of assignment and pledging; prohibition preventing the transfer of rights and obligations

13.1 Without the prior written permission of MPT, the Supplier shall not be authorised to assign or pledge, to third parties, any claims arising from agreements concluded with MPT.

13.2 The prohibition of assignment and pledging in paragraph 1 of this Article is expressly intended to apply in relation to the law of property, in the sense of Article 3:83, paragraph 2 of the Dutch Civil Code. The prohibition of assignment and pledging is therefore also effective on third parties.

13.3 Nor shall the Supplier be permitted to assign to a third party any of the rights and obligations arising from (an) agreement(s) concluded by the Supplier with MPT, without the prior written permission of MPT.

Article 14 Disputes and applicable law

14.1 All of our offers and agreements shall be subject to the laws of the Netherlands.

14.2 The application of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (the "Vienna Convention") is hereby excluded.

14.3 Unless the rules under mandatory law decree otherwise, the competent court of the area in which MPT's registered offices are located shall enjoy exclusive jurisdiction in connection with any disputes that may arise between MPT and the Supplier.
